THE HARTFORD CHORALE
FULL SCHOLARSHIP COLLEGE INDEPENDENT STUDY

The Hartford Chorale is offering an opportunity for college students to participate in the Hartford Chorale performance season on full scholarship. The Chorale will offer an opportunity to learn and perform challenging choral repertoire and to perform with professional instrumental musicians such as The Hartford Symphony Orchestra. This program was designed to reflect the National Music Standards (see attached). College students will be allowed to participate at no cost with the exception of purchasing scores. Auditions and recommendations must be completed prior to September 1, in order to perform in the December 1st and 2nd 2007 performances of Messiah by Handel. Letters of recommendation can be sent to The Hartford Chorale Office at the above address. The candidate will be contacted about audition dates and locations.

The student will agree to the following...

1. Upon acceptance via an audition/interview and recommendation from the student's choral director, the individual will receive a schedule and sign a commitment form specifying his/her responsibilities.
2. The individual will be responsible for completing a written report to be determined by the artistic director appropriate to his/her level at the end of the season.
3. The individual will be mentored by a designated chorale member throughout the season who will report on the participation, progress and adherence to specified attached measurable outcomes.
4. The individual will agree to honor all membership policies including attendance regulations and excluding membership dues and leave of absence.

The Hartford Chorale agrees to:

- Offer the student meaningful musical experiences
- Offer musical guidance/coaching so that the student may progress vocally and musically.
- Monitor the student's participation on a regular basis in consultation with the mentor and artistic director
- Keep a record of the student's attendance and successful participation in rehearsals and performances
- Provide a written evaluation/recommendation for the participant upon completion of all requirements

*It is up to the discretion of the Educational Outreach Committee in conjunction with the Artistic Director to terminate the Internship in writing if the individual has been made aware that one or more of the guidelines of participation has been violated.
